

Assistant Manager/Senior Analyst

WeValue Advisory Limited

We are a professional valuation and advisory firm aiming at providing excellent financial advisory and valuation services to our clients.

Job Duties:

- Assist the Director and Manager to conduct valuation analysis, develop valuation models and prepare valuation reports for business valuations, intangible assets valuations and financial instruments valuations;
- Conduct relevant market, industry as well as technical research including research of the relevant valuation standards and fair value related financial reporting standards;
- Interact with clients as well as other professional parties;
- Assist in preparing proposal as well as marketing materials;
- Assist in business development and marketing activities;
- Assist in preparing technical research publication.

Requirements:

- University graduates with a Bachelor Degree in accounting, finance, financial engineering or other related disciplines;
- Candidates with experience in business valuation or financial instrument valuation will be preferable;
- Good communication and written skills in both English and Chinese;
- Strong analytical, problem solving and communication skills;
- Self-motivates, mature and willing to learn;
- CFA/CPA professional qualification preferred;
- Candidates with 3 years (or above) of relevant experience will be considered as Assistant Manager position.

Become a WeValuer

We offer successful candidates a competitive benefits package, medical benefit and good prospect of career development.

For interested parties, please contact us:

recruitment@wevalue.com.hk

Our Culture

- Energetic and flexible working environment
- Friendly and energetic team
- Work-life balance